DEFENDANT ROBERT WEILER, JR.'S NOTICE OF APPEAL OF ORDER DENYING HIS SPECIAL MOTION TO DISMISS

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Defendant Robert Weiler, Jr. hereby appeals to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals from the Order of the Civil Division of this Court, entered on April 29, 2016 (the "Order"), denying his Special Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint that was filed under the authority of section 16-5502 of the District of Columbia Code.

A copy of the docket entry showing entry of the Order appears on page 1 of the attached excerpt of the docket entries in this action. The Order was not set forth on a separate document.

The Order appealed from is not final, but an immediate appeal nonetheless may be taken under the collateral-order doctrine. See Doe No. 1 v. Burke, 91 A.3d 1031 (D.C. 2014).

Notices of appeal have been filed in this case by all other named defendants with the exception of John Doe 1, who did not participate in the motions hearing from which this appeal follows.

The status of this Civil II case is "Paid," and undersigned is self-represented.

The names and addresses of all parties and counsel to be served are set forth on the attached certificate of service.

The proceeding at which the Order was issued was held on April 29, 2016, beginning at approximately 11:50 a.m., in Courtroom 221. No court reporter was present, but the proceeding audio recorded. Defendant Weiler intends to order a transcript of the proceeding from the Court Reporting and Central Recording Division.
